REFUND POLICY

Once your application has been initiated and a consultation has completed with any member of our legal team, documents have been discussed OR the application has been submitted to the authorities any payment made to the company automatically becomes non-refundable. The client must ensure they provide us with all documents within a reasonable time frame, usually 60-90 days. Any delays in submission of the documents may affect your eligibility for a refund. In an unlikely your application is rejected due to a negligence on behalf of the company you may be eligible for a refund once all avenues to amend the issue have been exhausted. If a refund is agreed upon at any stage it will exclude any 3rd party fee which may include any fee paid to our partners overseas to assist you in any part of the application OR the government fee. You will be provided with documentary evidence upon request. No refunds will be given if false information is provided by the applicant which leads to a refusal of a visa application or third-party process, fails to pass any language test or does not satisfy any 3rd party which may interview the applicant.

CHANGES IN LAW

Immigration rules and regulations may change from time to time and any government fees or your eligibility is subject to be affected, therefore we urge all our clients to provide all documents within a reasonable time frame, usually 90 days.

Global Migrate cannot be held accountable for any changes in legislation which may affect your case or the outcome of your visa application. In the event of a change in regulation which may disqualify you from applying for the visa application you hired us for, we will unfortunately not be able to provide a refund. However we aim to exhaust all avenues before a final decision has been made.
